POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

For County Commissioner.

EDITOR DEMOCRAT: Please announce my name as a candidate for the nomination for County Commissioner, subject to the decision of the Demoeratic County convention, Aug. 26. JACOB D. BREITENSTEIN. Franklin township.

THE result of yesterday's primaries indicate that Gen. Sherwood will control the Lucas county delegation Boston Ledges, Sunday, Aug. 12. to the Zanesville convention. This is the General's home county and he ought to have its support. CZAR REED is putting the Jekyl island treaty to a severe strain. He is permitting the impression to go out that he may not only not retire from Congress, but may insist on holding his job as Czar. There's no telling what may happen if Reed

"THE west will take care of the speakership, irrespective of how Thomas Bracket Reed may dispose of himself," says Editor Kohlsaat, in the Chicago Times-Herald. "Having put away the scepter, Mr. Reed cannot take it back again because it has not fallen into the hands he intended." If the west doesn't "take care" of Reed any better than Kohlsaat disposed of Forsker, the Czar will have nothing to worry about.

THE DAILY DEMOCRAT ago the men who claimed that there was a pressure for currency throughout the country were treated as cranks and lunatics by the Republican newspapers and stump speakers. What have they to say now about ecretary Gage?

> CAPTAIN H. O. FEEDERLE, First Lieutenant H. J. Blackburn and Second Lieutenant W. J. Rutherford were re-elected by acclamation as officers of Company B, last evening. These officers endeared themselves to the men of their command by an ver-alert and unselfish regard for their welfare during the trying days of the Santiago campaign. The reelection by acclamation shows that the boys appreciate what their officers did for them.

In Massachusetts the friends of imperialism want to defeat Senator Hoar, the Republican champion of anti-imperialism, for re-election, but no candidate can be found to run against him. The place has been offered to several prominent men, but none of them wants to take the drubbing that is certain to follow. Senator Hoar knows how his constituents feel on the subject of landgrabbing, and he is not afraid to represent them, even if it does interfere with the plans of the Admin-

GEN. SHERWOOD, of Toledo, has offered to withdraw from the Democratic gubernatorial race in Mayor Jones' favor if Jones will go before the convention as a candidate for the nomination. Jonas replies that he will "not affiliate with any party not composed of all the people." Half a million Democrats in Ohio think their party's principles are intended to represent the interests of "all the people" about as uniformly and successfully as could be devised. It is no secret that a great many of these Democrats are beginning to waver in their good opinion of Jones.
